RADICAL REX

game type: PLATFORM
1-2 PLAYERS

The story behind Radical Rex: Skriitch, a prehistoric mammal with some handy magical powers, wants to destroy the dino population leaving the mammals to reign supreme. His plan is to hypnotise the dinosaurs so that they will attack their own kind. Only the mega-cool Radical Rex is able to resist. So, it's up to Rex to save the dino kingdom, and in particular, his dino-darling Rexanne! While evolution might suggest this is a losing battle, Rex is set to give it a try.

Radical Rex takes you through five worlds to reach Rexanne, but as she is quickly recaptured, you must then travel back through the same five worlds in reverse - but with a few new surprises awaiting. This is a cute twist on a format that needs added spice for a game to stand out. Unfortunately, it is the only difference. The levels progress pretty much as you would expect, with no puzzles or mazes to heat the action up.

It's a pity because the skateboardin' hipster Rex would make a fine hero if only the gameplay matched the standard of say, Sonic. He moves a bit sluggishly, but then, dinosaurs probably do. He has a tasty jump-kick and can breathe fire at will.

Given that Radical Rex is only an 8-bit game, the graphics are nicely drawn - especially Rex - with good attention to detail. The controls are easy to handle, and on the difficult setting, the game will certainly prove challenging. However, the route through the levels is far too straightforward and there seems to be scant reward for taking a detour. Another gripe is that the bosses are particularly hard compared to the levels - you'll find yourself

While it does little to improve upon a fairly tired format, Radical Rex is fun to play and is satisfyingly difficult to complete. All in all, the effort to help Rex restore prehistoric partying is not a bad way to pass the time. - JF

YUMEMI MYSTERY MANSION

game type: ADVENTURE
1 PLAYER

Yumemi Mystery Mansion is the latest hot and spooky title for the Mega CD. In the game you and your sister find yourselves wandering around a creepy forest whereupon you discover a house. 'Sis' promptly turns into a butterfly, flies into the house and your aim is to go inside to rescue her.

The view is from the first person perspective and the disc access is almost instantaneous! You can walk around the house, explore the rooms, lift items to reveal keys and much more. If you get stuck there's a mirror that gives visual clues in the form of rooms to go to; this tends to be one of the biggest problems with the game as it can be a little too easy to use the mirror whenever you're in difficulty!

There are plenty of great visual effects like running out of a room, leaning over a balcony or actually falling over a balcony and landing in the reception hall below!

The sound is atmospheric and creepy giving the place an added chill. The graphics can't be faulted and were created with a 3-D modelling package, which is so realistic it feels like you're inside a real house! Yumemi Mystery Mansion is a real puzzler's game! - VL

JIM CHALLENGES ARNIE

EARTHWORM JIM - THE TOUGHEST WORM EVER!

Earthworm Jim and the intergalactic menace of The Snowman!

Jim was just an ordinary worm until he discovered The Suit and became Earthworm Jim! Now able to run, jump, shoot a gun and pump iron better than Schwarzenegger himself, Jim is out to vanquish all the evil in the universe (even Arnie hasn't tried that!).

Earthworm Jim is the new platform action game from the same team who brought Cool Spot and Aladdin to the Mega Drive. Based in a madcap world of superb graphics and smooth animation, Earthworm Jim looks to be a hot contender in the Christmas Game stakes.

To give just a sample of the game: You have to help Jim ride a giant hamster, bungee-jump into a pool of snot and guide the adorable Peter Puppy to safety (but don't make him angry, he can be a real monster). And that's just for starters.

The team behind Earthworm Jim, Shiny Entertainment, is lead by ace programmer Dave Perry who, with a little help from the Disney animators, was responsible for the amazing graphics in Aladdin for the Mega Drive.

Earthworm Jim appears next month from Virgin as a 24-bit Mega Drive cart.

Earthworm Jim using his head as only a worm can!

VIRGIN GETS ACTIVE

FOUR BIG RELEASES THIS MONTH

Virgin Interactive is becoming extremely active this month with four new Sega releases:

JIMMY WHITE'S WHIRLWIND SNOOKER (MD)

The award-winning snooker simulation comes to the Mega Drive complete with silky-smooth animation and great 3D graphics. Form an orderly cue for this game (doh!).

DINO DINNI'S SOCCER (MD)

He shoots, he scores! The man behind the classic Kick Off! game brings new football action to the Mega Drive. All the features you'd expect from a top-class soccer sim plus around 100 international teams, leagues, tournaments and cups to play through.

DRAGON (MD)

Dragon is the game based on the film based on the life of martial arts superstar Bruce Lee. STC reviewed it last issue and gave it a whopping 90%. What more needs to be said?

ANOTHER WORLD I & II: THE SECOND BEGINNING (MCD)

A double treat: the original, award-winning Another World sf adventure game plus an all-new sequel packed onto one Mega CD disc. The unique style of cinematic action of the original has been enhanced with new digitised sound effects and live actors' voices.

Release dates were correct as of going to press, but check with your local shop before rushing out to buy these games.

SHORT BURSTS

Newshound: Garry Penn.

WEIRD HAPPENINGS

Feeling clever and adventurous? Then Time Warner Interactive's strategy-adventure Generations Lost should be right up your street.

The story concerns a fictitious land in the grip of strange happenings which incorporate weird electrical currents, massive floods, hordes of disfigured creatures and people floating due to gravitational changes! It's up to you (as Monobe, the 'chosen one') to find out why all this is happening, and to save the day before the land is destroyed.

There are six different zones to explore and dozens of enemies to meet and defeat. The idea is to collect objects on your travels and use 'special powers' to unravel the mystery of what promises to be an atmospheric adventure with a difference.

A pity we won't know just how different Generations Lost is until it's released on the Mega Drive next month.

WHAT ABOUT THE GAME GEAR?

We hear you, Game Gear owners. Fear not, Sega's popular portable is not forgotten.

Coming up next month are GG conversions of Mega Drive hits Road Rash II and PGA Tour Golf II priced at £29.99 each.

In the racing simulation Road Rash II, the accent is firmly on winning cash at any cost. Not only do you get to race 15 different power-bikes at high speed through all five of the original Mega Drive courses, but you also get to give the opposition a good thumping, so to speak. The inclusion of a two-player link option should make the competition all the more intense.

If you haven't heard of the original PGA Tour Golf II, shame on you. It's the best golfing simulation available for the Mega Drive. Now, of course (pardon the pun), it's on the Game Gear. The PGA Tour Golf II cartridge is a whacking great four megabits (that's twice the size of most Game Gear cartridges) and features 3D scenery, players and ball behaviour, even more detailed than before. Three simulated professional golfers are included so you can play a round with them - or against them in a competition for big bucks (pity it's only a simulation, really).

SONIC Solved

SONIC 3

PART 4 - THE BOSSES CONT'D

CARNIVAL NIGHT

ACT 1

SELF D-STRUCT MACHINE

This dude is quite tough to beat if you don't keep your wits about you. All you have to do is get it to destroy itself!

- As the D-Struct Machine drops in from above stand to the left of it.
- As the blade separates from the body and flies up, try to keep as close as possible to the main body. The only way to beat it is to get the blade to ram the main body when it is open and extended.
- After four hits it explodes and you drop down to the next act!
- At the bottom you can leap up and bounce on the end-of-act marker to rack up your score!

ACT 2

DOCTOR ROBOTNIK'S ENERGY SHIP

- Robotnik will enter from the upper right in his ship.
- He will drop a ball from his ship, which you have to avoid. Robotnik will position his ship over it creating an energy charge which sucks Sonic in!
- Push hard in the opposite direction and jump to avoid being pulled in. The suction will stop and Robotnik will descend to pick up the ball.

Here's your chance!

- Quickly leap up and ram his ship. When he has collected the ball you can still ram him, watch out as he'll drop the ball again soon after.
- When the ball has stopped moving you can ram him again quickly, then move away to avoid the energy vortex.
- Repeat the above moves until you have hit him eight times. His ship will explode and go off to the right. You can follow him and release Sonic's friends again.

ICECAP ZONE

ICEBALL

This frigid droid will suck up ice balls which it uses to encircle itself with. Keep Sonic over to the right and wait for it to drop go to the upper left corner and then back to the right above him. When the ice balls fly up, jump and ram the badnik as quickly as possible. The ice balls will drop from above - avoid them!

- Keep to the far right and the process will repeat with the ice balls being drawn in from under Sonic to circle the droid. It will move to the upper left corner. Pause, then dash across to the left underneath. Wait until the ice balls have gone - then ram it.
- After five hits Iceball will explode and you can hit the end-of-act marker for those crucial extra points.

ACT 2

DOCTOR ROBOTNIK'S FREEZE-O-MATIC

- Robotnik will drop in from the upper right in his latest contraption.
- Move Sonic left and wait for Robotnik to start moving towards you. As he approaches, an icy spray will blast out from underneath and left of his machine.
- Leap onto the platform under his ship and ram him quickly, then leap off it.
- Wait for Robotnik to fire off an icy spray straight down from under his ship, then leap onto the platform and ram him again. If Sonic gets caught in the spray he'll be frozen into an ice block and lose his rings.
- If you keep calm and choose your moment carefully you can take Robotnik out quite easily.
- Wait for the moment he fires a spray from directly under his ship and you will have an excellent chance of getting in a quick hit against him.
- Once the Freeze-O-Matic explodes head right and hit the button to release Sonic's pals from captivity!

LAUNCH BASE

SWING'M SPIKEZ

This mace-swinging badnik has to be the easiest one to beat - if you know how!

- Position Sonic in the middle of the screen under the centre block from which the droid drops. Stay in position, do not move left or right as it descends.
- Wait for its rotating arms to move out of the way and ensure the spike isn't directly over you before you leap Sonic straight up to ram it. Keep jumping up to ram it when its arms are out of the way. You can do this at will as long as you don't move left or right!
- After six hits it will explode and its time to rack up the points as the end-of-act marker descends!

ACT 2

DOCTOR ROBOTNIK'S FINAL CHALLENGE

This is it ... the final showdown with ol' Egg Breath! However, this is the most difficult battle yet as Robotnik unleashes not one, but three diabolical new devices. Stay alert!

- Robotnik appears upper right in his ship. It raises itself up on three giant legs and releases a ledge from below. A huge metal ball is fired from the wall.
- To beat him you have to leap off the ledge and ram Robotnik whilst avoiding the ball; the problem is that the ball launches at different heights and at random, so you're left guessing!
- The best technique is to bite the bullet and jump on the ledge and keep ramming Robotnik's craft as quickly as possible. After eight hits it will explode.
- Go right to find one of Robotnik's old Egg-O-Matics. Climb in and it takes off flying Sonic to the right. Knuckles appears in front of you standing on top of a tower. He is toppled off his perch and Sonic continues to fly right until he meets up with Robotnik once again!
- This time Robotnik has a deadly new triple-stage craft. He rises up from the right firing lasers at Sonic. Ram his ship five times to blow it up before he drops down again!
- Ram him another four times and he explodes to reappear for the 'umpteenth' time!
- This time he pilots his most dangerous craft yet! Watch out for the giant mechanical hands that can grab Sonic and take his rings.
- You have to hit him eight times to beat him and reach the end sequence, assuming of course that you collected all seven Chaos Emeralds.
- The moves are really tough and unforgiving here. However, practice will see you through.
- Robotnik's spiked machine will attack in three ways so strike back as follows to be sure of a hit.

- When it goes left and right above Sonic it will swoop down the centre of the screen. Wait in the middle of the screen then position Sonic in the last third of the right side of the screen. As Robotnik descends, leap up and hit the ship, then leap left and right over its deadly spikes.
- If he comes in from the right or left, get to the centre or last third of the left or right of the screen. As he enters leap right/left and hit his ship.
- Your timing must be spot on to make contact with the right part of the ship - you'll soon see what is meant!
- If all goes well you're then treated to the end-of-game sequence. Congratulations!

It's the end of STC's mammoth Sonic 3 solution, but even more detail and more pics can be found in The Official Sonic 3 Play Guide from Titan Books. STC has 50 of them to give away, free! Full details elsewhere in this issue.

Techno Sonic

Dear Megadroid,

In your opinion which system do you think is the best for quality and value for money? The Multi-Mega or the Saturn? I'd also like to know whether there's going to be a Sonic 4? If so, will Ray or Mighty from the arcade game be in it?

Sui May Lo, Norwich, Norfolk.
Sonic Water Fun Game Winner.

At the moment Sui, just the Multi-Mega is on sale.

However, if you're thinking of buying Sega's hippest item - a combined Mega-CD and Mega Drive in one, start adding to your piggy bank as the price is in excess of £300! As for Saturn, this will be the next step up in video game technology. It aims to provide advanced quality of graphics and game play to equal that of the arcade games. Rumoured for release sometime in 1995, you can bet it will burn an even bigger hole in your pocket! As for Sonic 4, give Sega a chance, Sonic & Knuckles has only just been released.
